

Dr. B. Mario Pinto
Vice President, Research
Simon Fraser University, Canada

Dr. B. Mario Pinto is currently the Vice President, Research at Simon Fraser University, Canada. At this position, he advocates for university research and guides policy development at the university, provincial & national levels.

He is a pioneer in the field of chemical biology and is one of the founding members of the Centre for Drug Research & Development (CDRD). His work involves the synthesis of antiviral & antibacterial drugs, bacterial vaccines and new methods of viral control.

He is the President of the Canadian Society for Chemistry. He has been the Past President and the Canadian representative of the International Carbohydrate Organization. He has received many awards & honours including the BC Innovation Council Frontiers in Research Award. He is a Fellow of the Chemical Institute of Canada & the Royal Society of Canada.